

GERMANY ANNOUNCES CONDITIONS UPON WHICH SHE WILL MAKE PEACE

Tag Day Exhibit— INFANT WELFARE CAMP AT MYRICK PARK —Tag Day Exhibit

Will You Chip in for This Saturday?

This is one of the visiting nurse's "jobs." Take a good look at the picture—it will make you anxious for TAG DAY. Visiting Nurse Marie Peterson is she at the right of the two women between the automobiles. By her side is Nurse Mitchell, of St. Francis hospital. In the car at the left, from left to right, are Mrs. Olsen, the housekeeper; Miss Charlotte Reimers, who is driving her car as a "baby jitney," and Nurse Larsen, of the Lutheran hospital. Miss Esther Linker, another "baby jitney" contributor, is in the front seat of the car to the right with Miss Grace Forbes. In the rear seat is Miss

Marie Klees, a St. Francis hospital nurse. For more than eight weeks in mid-summer, July 1 to August 28, this welfare camp has housed an average of thirty-two babies. They come from the more modest homes, where parents are away at work. They are taken to and from the camp in automobiles furnished by kindly citizens, in many cases driven by the donor's daughter. They are picked up at about 8 o'clock in the morning and returned to their homes at 5 in the evening. The place is well supplied with toys, merchants having literally showered them upon the little resort-nurses. Also there is a big sand box and a swing. All the children took smilingly to the nurses and they had a great summer. Their mothers called and were delighted, and there was a constant flood of callers, mostly picnicers in Myrick park. "We had some beautiful babies," said Nurse Peterson. There was little illness—so little that while Dr. J. M. Forstman, health commissioner, was a frequent visitor, it was not once necessary for him to make a professional call at the camp. Fresh air and good feeding did their work well. Among those who helped with automobiles were: Misses Mary O'Connell, Magdalene Tillman, Gertrude Ives, Lucile Houthmaker, Esther and Leona Linker, Charlotte Reimers, Ruth Linker, Loretta and Camilla MacWillie, Alice Pryor, Stella Trane and Meta Mueller. The entire equipment of the welfare camp will be set up on the ground during the interstate fair, under the authority of the city health department, and there nurses will conduct a rest department for babies whose mothers will thus be enabled to view the fair.

BOUQUETS INSTEAD OF TAGS WILL BE GIVEN TRAVELERS

Innovation Introduced by Mrs. E. C. Thompson Who Has Charge of Railway Stations

THEATERS TO SPLIT RECEIPTS

Casino and Star Will Divide Matinees and the Other Houses Offer Their Screens

COURTESY IS THE SLOGAN

"Once Tagged, Excuse Me!" Watchword Framed for Guidance of the Taggers

Buttonhole bouquets instead of printed tags will be tokens of their generosity given to the travelers who are approached at the railway stations on Tag day. Mrs. E. C. Thompson, under whose supervision young women will meet the forty-two passenger trains which come into the city on Saturday, announced today that she had invented this novel way of interesting the traveling public. "Travelers cannot be expected to be as deeply interested as our citizens in the visiting nurse," Mrs. Thompson explained today, "but they will be interested in the buttonhole bouquets we are to offer them."

Theatrical managers today enlisted under the Tag day banner in the campaign for the visiting nurse fund. The Casino and the Star theaters will split "fifty-fifty" on matinee receipts with the Tag day fund, and the Bijou and Majestic theaters have offered their screens for advertising purposes.

Manager McWilliams will give his Tag day matinee Saturday afternoon. Manager Rehfs of the Star will turn over the receipts of tomorrow's matinee. And both this morning urged that the public take note of the days and attend upon the day when half of their admission will go to the visiting nurse fund. The Casino is showing a five reel feature, "The Master Hand," with Nat Goodwin as the star. The Star has Princess Hassan as chief performer in a two reel offering "Under the Crescent," a comedy. "Bill's Blighted Career," in two reels, and "Vanity," a two reel comedy.

As the plan of the Tag day campaign was completed today it was reiterated that subscriptions will not be solicited to the point of unpleasantness. Factories and shops will not be entered except upon permission. The managers of the campaign are emphasizing that courtesy is to be the guide of every one of the taggers. Once tagged, one is to be immune, will be the instructions, and this watchword was framed today: "Once tagged—excuse me!"

Scouts on Cars In the street cars boy scouts in uniform will sell tags. One scout will be assigned to each car, and the committee in charge this morning emphasized that only the boy scouts in uniform, and on street cars, are authorized taggers.

A meeting of the boy scouts who will help in the Tag day work will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. General instructions will be issued to the corps at that time. The importance to La Crosse of the visiting nurse, for the maintenance of whose work the Tag day is held, was emphasized this morning in an interview given out by Dr. J. M. Forstman, city health commissioner.

Three Branches of Work "The visiting nurse's work," he said, "is divided into three important branches: infant welfare; school inspection; and general visiting. The importance of these three in keeping the city up to a high standard of health can hardly be over-estimated. Let me cite you a few figures for the infant welfare work alone—just for June, July and August of 1914—it is in the summer that the infant welfare work is of most importance. "In those three months of last year there were 223 babies under observation. Miss Peterson and her assistants—nurses assigned by the hospital—made 1,773 calls. And of all that number only twenty-five babies were sick at all.

"This summer the infant welfare work has been concentrated at the baby station in Myrick park, with even better results. But all winter Miss Peterson gives careful attention to the babies. Every child under two years of age in the city has a card in her index, and every one that is ill— (Continued on Page 6, Col. 3.)

PAPAL PLANS FOR BRINGING PEACE TOLD TO WILSON

Cardinal Gibbons Has Conference with President at White House Today

HOLDS TIME IS FAVORABLE

Prelate Declares German Concessions Make the Outlook for Peace Roseate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—A peace note from Pope Benedict to President Wilson was presented and discussed by Cardinal Gibbons at the White house and later at Secretary Lansing's office, the cardinal admitted after the audience today. He declined to give details of the discussion, but admitted he had received a message from the pope. The cardinal expressed gratification to the president over the results of the late diplomatic controversy with Germany.

"My conference with the president was extremely satisfactory," continued the cardinal. "Although I cannot outline at this time a statement of the views that passed between the president and myself, I hope within a short time to formulate a proper expression of the meeting in which I can express my views."

"Will you discuss with Mr. Lansing the same subject?" the cardinal was asked. "I expect to take up with him a similar line of discussion," the cardinal replied. "Do you consider Germany's recent action agreeing to a modified submarine warfare as favorable to a European peace?" another questioner asked.

"Highly favorable," said the cardinal, "and it makes the situation much more easy of accomplishment in our efforts to bring about peace."

Allies Six Months Ago Could Have Accomplished Peace by Giving Freedom of the Seas

POLE FREEDOM BIG ISSUE

Germany Says Poland Must Be Freed Before She Will Consent to End Hostilities

JEWS MUST BE GIVEN RIGHTS

Intimation Is Allies a Year from Now Could Not Establish Peace Without Greater Concessions

(By CHARLES P. STEWART) (United Press Staff Correspondent) WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Germany wants peace, on these terms: Freedom of the seas. Freedom for Poland.

World-wide recognition of the rights of Jews.

The Kaiser's prime purpose in the "memorandum" his ambassador filed with the state department Wednesday, was the enlistment of American co-operation in ending the war in Europe.

This information was given out from the German embassy in Washington today. It was not official, but it was authoritative.

The state department expected from Germany a more detailed statement than the memorandum on the subject of submarine warfare.

German Attitude Explained From this source also, came this statement of Germany's attitude toward peace:

That the allies six months ago could have accomplished peace wherein Germany would have sought nothing but freedom of the seas.

That the allies can at this time establish a peace by agreeing to Polish freedom, to freedom of the seas and that the Jews of all countries be unequivocally accorded their inalienable rights as human beings.

That a year from now, when Germany's conquests and victories have mounted higher and higher, the allies can establish peace only by more and greater concessions than those outlined at present.

Allies Must Answer Continuing, the United Press' informant said that the allies must answer to civilization, not only for the inception but for each hour's continuance of this frightful war.

He reiterated that Germany never has wanted war and is and has been willing at any hour since August, of 1914, to make an honorable peace. This source looks with optimism upon possible developments of a peace nature, as the result of the American government's possible activities since Germany's memorandum of Wednesday.

It was pointed out that the financial conditions confronting England, Russia and France make this moment particularly propitious for a peace move.

WEST SALEM BAND TO PLAY RETURN CONCERT IN PARK

La Crosse will have an opportunity to hear again the popular West Salem Military band Friday night, it was announced this morning. The popularity of the organization on the occasion of their last visit to La Crosse several weeks ago led the authorities to grasp the opportunity of securing them for a second entertainment. The band will be at the Tomahawk fair during the day, and in La Crosse in the evening. The concert will commence promptly at 7:30.

BRITAIN TAKES NO COGNIZANCE OF GERMAN YIELDING

London Avers if England Makes Concessions It Will Be on Recognition of Merits of Demands

PAPERS STRONG FOR WILSON

Opinion Is German Concession Is Recognition of the Usages of International Law

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Political circles here took the view today that Germany's yielding to the United States will have little if any effect upon the negotiations now pending between Great Britain and America for a modification of the British order in council.

No expression was obtainable at the government offices. But it was said unofficially that if England makes concessions to the United States these concessions will be made because the government recognizes the merits of America's arguments, and not because Germany promised certain changes in her policy of submarine merchantmen.

The English view today, as expressed by the editorial comment of London papers, was that President Wilson has scored an important diplomatic victory.

The American president, it was pointed out, has finally succeeded in compelling Germany to recognize the usages of international law. But political circles here expressed the opinion that the concessions actually made by Germany were few and in no way justified England in withdrawing her blockade of the German coast.

CHAMP CLARK IS NEGRO'S RESCUER

BOWLING GREEN, Mo., Sept. 2.—Harrison Rose, negro slayer of Bud Davidson, of Clarksville, Mo., a white farmer, probably owes the fact that he is alive today to Speaker Champ Clark's eloquence and Pike county's prestige. Aroused from his bed last night by the chugging of six automobiles loaded with farmers from Clarksville, who were intent upon hanging the negro, Clark ran among the crowd and exhorted the members to let the law take its course.

LEADING JOURNALS OF NATION ARE AS ONE IN PRAISE OF WILSON

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Leading papers of Chicago were united today in proclaiming the amicable settlement of the German-American situation as a great diplomatic victory. Some comments follow:

CHICAGO TRIBUNE.—President Wilson's bold stroke in diplomacy has found its certain work. It is an extraordinary triumph not only for the American nation, but for his personally. If the party in Germany headed by Von Tirpitz had prevailed, we should have had war instead of an amicable arrangement facing us.

CHICAGO DAILY NEWS.—The American public and the world at large have reason to rejoice that so patient, so courteous and so firm an executive as President Wilson has had charge of this great case.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—New York newspapers today without exception characterized the settlement of the German-American situation as a great victory for the United States and for President Wilson. The comment included:

WORLD.—President Wilson's patient but unyielding devotion to vital principals of law and humanity has brought peace with honor out of the German crisis.

TIMES.—President Wilson is in a position to say with the fervor of full conviction that "truth is mighty and will prevail." The great diplomatic triumph which he has achieved in the long controversy with Germany is one for which the world will award him great credit; it will bring him high distinction.

NICKEL LOAF TO BE WITH US AGAIN FIRST OF WEEK

Flour Declines to a Point Where Bakers Can Sell 16 Ounce Loaf for Five Cents

Bread goes down on Monday. The jitney loaf, which has been only a memory in La Crosse since war consumption skied wheat and flour prices, will return the first of next week, bakers of the city announced today.

With the arrival of the new wheat crop—a bumper yield—flour has been dropping steadily, and has now reached a point where bakers feel safe in selling for five cents the sixteen ounce loaf required by a city ordinance.

Flour dropped 60 cents a barrel again yesterday, patent being quoted in La Crosse at $6.10 and straight at $5.90.

MARINES TAKE POSSESSION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Two companies of American marines took possession of the Petit Goave, Hayti, custom houses Wednesday. Admiral Caperton reported to the navy department today.

WOMAN DIES OF TETANUS AFTER FALL FROM WAGON

Lockjaw Results from Gash Which Mrs. Meta Mitweide Suffered in Accident a Week Ago

Lockjaw, the result of a fall from her market wagon to a street in the city, last night caused the death of Mrs. Meta Mitweide, wife of a truck gardener who lives on the north Salem road. For the last few days before her death Mrs. Mitweide was in constant sufferings.

Mrs. Mitweide was hurt a week ago. She was thrown from the seat of her truck-wagon when the wheel of the vehicle was wrenched in the street car track upon Caledonia street. A long gash was cut in her head by the steel rail of the track.

She was taken to the St. Francis hospital, where the wound was sewed up, and physicians at the time remarked upon her fortitude in having a score of stitches placed in the gash without movement of a muscle. She refused an anaesthetic.

Mrs. Mitweide was born in Germany fifty years ago, being born (Continued on Page 6, col. 4.)

OUTER WORKS OF GRODNO SUCCUMB TO GERMAN ATTACK

Grodno Position as Last Point on Important Railroad to Capital Is Perilous

RUSSIANS CLAIM SUCCESSES

Ivanoff Has Escaped Trap and Austrian Attempt to Clear Galicia Is a Failure

BERLIN, via London, Sept. 2.—The outer forts of Grodno have fallen before the German assault. The capture of the fortress is believed near. The point is the last held by the Russians on the main Warsaw-Petrograd railway.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 2.—General Ivanoff's armies have escaped the latest trap set by the Austro-Germans. The fortress of Luzk has been evacuated by the Russians with scarcely any loss in men or guns and the Slavs, falling back in the direction of Dubno fortress, have taken 10,000 prisoners.

The Austrian plan to pierce the Russian line in this region, roll up the right flank of General Ivanoff's forces and cut off the Russian army corps operating in Galicia, has broken down. The enemy has made no material gains, but on the contrary has suffered heavily in killed and captured. The Slav line already has been reformed.

Half a million Austro-Germans are engaged in the attempt to sweep the Russians out of Galicia. But despite their most determined efforts, supported by heavy shell fire, the enemy forces have been unable to break the Slav front. It is admitted here that the complete evacuation of Galician territory is one of the moves in view by the general staff.

In the north the Germans have drawn nearer to Grodno but elsewhere there is no important change in the situation. The Russians are maintaining their positions at Friedrichsdorf despite the enemy's incessant fire. In some quarters it was believed today that the Austrian movement around Luzk forecasts an attempt to reach Kiev. The majority of the military critics here, however, believe that the enemy's efforts will be next concentrated in an attempt against Petrograd.

DRUGGISTS WOULD AMEND LAW FAULTS

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 2.—Correction of some of the alleged inconsistencies of the Harrison drug law was undertaken today by the National Association of Retail Druggists in annual session here. Druggists called attention to the provisions of the law, whereby a druggist is permitted to sell patent medicine containing less than one grain of cocaine or opium per ounce over the counter but is not permitted to fill prescriptions with the same amount of drug.

Otto A. Bruder, of Chicago, in an address, urged druggists to get a plot of ground and raise their own herbs but the association condemned physicians mixing their own prescriptions.

The TRIBUNE'S Daily Short Story

AN EVENING OFF

BY LOUISE OLIVER

Copyright, 1915, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Priscilla laid Gerald junior in his crib, tilted the bottles to just the proper angle and snatched a soft little handkerchief out of her belt just in time to prevent a very bitter tear from dropping down on to the wee pink cheek on the pillow.

Gerald senior had just gone out, slamming the door as most males do, considering the same a fitting finale for a marital row. This was their first quarrel, and Priscilla felt that the earth was shaking under her feet.

She slipped into a kimono and sat down by the window. It was not quite dark, but the street below was very quiet; so was the little flat—just a soft, contented sound from the crib in the corner. The silence added to her loneliness. Of course little Gerald was the dearest, sweetest, most precious darling in the wide world, but after she had cooed and kissed and patted and rocked all day, to say nothing of the ceremonious bath and airing in the perambulator, she felt it her privilege to associate with people of her own age.

After baby had settled himself to sleep all night; preferably Gerald senior, but—and this was what the trouble was all about—he had a drug store, and no one could be trusted with the precious prescription factory from 8 a. m. until 11 p. m. daily but himself. Priscilla was left to amuse herself as best she could.

The evenings had passed in a dull procession. The lonely little mother tried everything she knew of to while away empty hours, reading, mending, attempting new coiffures for nobody to see and sleeping. From pure loneliness she had taken to retiring at 9.

The little handkerchief was getting quite wet. The twilight deepened into darkness and the street below began to show signs of life. A taxicab drew up to the entrance of the tall building next door and a couple got out, the woman with a velvet evening cloak thrown over a light gown of some sort. The entrance light fell upon them then and Priscilla saw that the gown was of soft plaited chiffon of pale yellow, and that the satin slippers and stockings matched. She sighed. How many ages had it been since she had dressed like that!

Others came, some walking and some in automobiles. Priscilla watched eagerly for glimpses of fluffy gowns. Her own face began to reflect some of the eagerness and brightness of those below.

Suddenly some one threw up a window in the building next door and strains of music came floating over to her. She raised her own window in order to hear better. It was a waltz, and, looking up, she caught a glimpse now and then of passing dancers.

Gerald junior was sleeping now. She took away the bottle, covered him snugly—and then she went to her desk. Long ago she had tucked away an engraved card somewhere in a pigeonhole. She found it under the STUDIO DANCING.

Classes Tuesday and Friday From 8 Until 11.
Private Lessons as Arranged.
Nestor Building, Philadelphia.

How she had coaxed Gerald to go! He used to love dancing! How marriage had changed him! It was different with women. They didn't lose all romance in two short years.

Then she thought of something. Why not go to dancing school alone? Many women did! But, pshaw! There was no use trying to make excuses for herself. Either she was going or she wasn't! Which? She stood an instant, irresolute, then straightened perceptibly. She was!

She rolled baby's bed as quietly as she could to the window and pulled the shade to the top. If she left a bright light burning in the room she could look over at him after every dance to make sure he was all right.

In a few minutes she was dressed in a year-old white gown and black slippers and stockings, but she felt like Cinderella in satin and crystal going to her first ball.

She glanced at the clock. Nine! And Gerald wouldn't be home until eleven! Two hours to enjoy herself! If only she looked at his picture on the mantel and sighed—if only he were a little different and cared for some of the things she did!

The preliminaries were a little trying to timid Priscilla, but the delight of dancing more than made up for the effort. As she had planned, after every dance she went to the window for a peep at the baby, who lay, as he had left him, sound asleep in his bed close to the window.

Priscilla laughed softly to herself. How splendidly her plan had worked! Two hours of pleasure like this once a week would keep her going hundreds of lonely evenings at home alone.

"What Gerald does not know does not hurt him!" she reflected smiling. "I'm not doing any one in the world a bit of harm."

The class work on a new one-step took a little longer than usual, and by the time it was over Priscilla was frantic with anxiety. She made straight for the window and looked down at Baby Gerald's window.

She put her hand suddenly to her mouth to stifle a scream. She was just in time to see two masculine arms lift baby from his bed and disappear.

She had locked the door and no one else but Gerald had a key. But Gerald had no pepper-and-salt clothes, and the two arms that held her precious baby were encased in rough tweed!

Priscilla ran! Like a flash she was down stairs, out on the street, then up the stairs of her own building. The door of her apartment was standing open and—Gerald junior was gone.

She tried to reach the telephone, but the floor was waving and everything was dancing before her eyes. She sat down an instant until things should get steadier—then quietly fainted away.

The next morning Gerald senior sat holding one of Priscilla's hands. Baby Gerald lay cooing in his crib and everything seemed delightfully peaceful and happy to the little woman in bed. "If you don't mind, Gerald dear, will you please tell me all over again how you rushed home for baby when you got the message your grandmother was passing through town and wanted to see her only grandchild?"

So he told her again.

"Whose coat had you on, dear?" "Sam's my clerk's. I had only ten minutes to get to the train and in my rush I got the wrong one."

"And you're sure you don't mind my going to dancing school?" "Yes, I do mind! It was a shame you had to go alone. After this we'll get Sally to stay Friday nights to look after the baby and we'll go fox-trotting together."

Daddy's Bedtime Story

What the Very Young Baby Tries to Say.

It Sounded Like Oogly-googly-goo.

"I SUPPOSE you kiddies don't understand what a very young baby tries to say," said daddy to Jack and Evelyn when they had come to him for the evening story. "Of course it isn't so very long ago that you kiddies were babies yourselves, and I think I can remember well enough about that to come pretty close to the true meaning of baby language."

"So I'll start right in from the day the stork brought a very young baby to the parents who loved it very much."

"That baby was very small and red, and when it poked up its funny face you couldn't tell for the life of you whether it was smiling or getting ready to cry. But it didn't leave you very long in doubt of its intentions, for very soon it raised a voice that was a great deal bigger than it was, and it just yelled for all it was worth."

"Yes; it did quite a little crying at first, but after awhile it contrived a funny little crooked smile that was for all the world like it looked when it was preparing for a good cry. Its mother didn't know which it was for a moment, and then she was overjoyed to find that it was a really truly smile, and she called to papa to come and see it."

"Then the baby said 'Goo'—"

"That first little 'Goo' is a great word in baby language, and I will tell you what it means."

"I'm very little and weeny," it says, 'and I don't know very much yet. I have wondered a great deal since the stork brought me, for this is very different from Stork Land, and you see I had to get used to things. But you two big people—I don't know who you are yet, but you both look good to me and I think I shall like you very much. In fact, I like everything well enough so I've made up my mind to smile about it and make the best of everything except when I cry, and I have a right to cry. Maybe there is a pin in me.'"

"And after awhile the baby said something that sounded like 'Oogly-googly-goo! Goo!' And that meant this:

"I notice you two big people are working your faces and making funny sounds at me, and I don't in the least know what that means, except that I suppose I'm expected to make funny sounds back. So I do, and I'll wager they are funnier sounds than you can make."

"So that's the way it goes, kiddies, and as the baby grows older and makes more sounds it is just trying to tell you its impressions of life, and so it goes until it is old enough to really talk and tell the big people it loves them as they love it, and by and by the little baby is a little child that asks its parents questions they can't answer."

THIRD TOMAH FIRE WITHIN 48 HOURS DESTROYS MILL

W. H. Clark Property Burns to Ground Following Two Conflagrations Which Cannot Be Explained

FIRE WHISTLE CAUSES DEATH

Colonel George Graham Succumbs to Heart Attack as Fire Whistle Sounds Warning of Blaze

TOMAH, Wis., Sept. 2.—(Special.)—The third fire of mysterious origin occurring here within forty-eight hours last night caused a loss of approximately $15,000 when the W. H. Clark planing and feed mill and wagon works burned to the ground. Nothing was saved.

The first fire occurred at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the home of John Pier. The building was being moved. The roof of the dwelling was destroyed.

A hay barn belonging to John Brahmmer burned to the ground Tuesday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. The last was thought to have been

Whistle Causes Death

The shrill whistle warning Tomah at 12 o'clock last night that the W. H. Clark mill was on fire is thought to have caused the death of Colonel George Graham, aged 74, for thirty years a resident of this city.

Colonel Graham has been a sufferer with heart trouble for some time. Sudden noises caused his heart to flutter. Members of his family found him dead last night following the blowing of the fire whistle. They had seen him shortly before.

Colonel Graham was postmaster of Tomah for sixteen years and is one of the best known men of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Graham celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary one year ago. Colonel Graham is survived by his widow and three daughters and one son. He fought through the civil war.

caused by spontaneous combustion, although this is a mere theory. No cause can be given for the origin of the fire at either the Pier dwelling or the Clark property.

About midnight last night flames were seen shooting from windows in the large frame building. The alarm was spread, although to no avail, and the efforts of the fire department, only prevented the flames from spreading to other buildings in the vicinity.

Telephones Hurt

Fire that destroyed the Brahmmer barn did considerable damage to telephone wires. A one hundred pair cable was burned, disconnecting about four hundred telephones. All of these are south of the park, including south rural phones. Owing to the prompt action and the efficient work of the telephone company the public will be inconvenienced only about thirty-six hours. They expect to have them all connected up again by Thursday morning.

It is pointed out that tramps in the vicinity of Tomah are frequent and may have been sleeping in the Clark building. Mr. Clark, the owner, is will begin September 7, 1915. Students are registering every day. Our special rate will close Saturday, Sept. 4. Don't forget that while there are many good schools in La Crosse and vicinity, the Keefe Business College excels them all. This was vividly demonstrated last winter when the revealing of our methods caused a real sensation among the students of another college in this city. The result was that 36 students discarded their paid up scholarships and came to us to complete their education. This caused their former teachers to resign and go into business for themselves. It was the Keefe business methods that did it. They can't be equalled. Get your scholarship of us now. You will likely come to us later to complete your education as many others have. Another feature about this college worth considering is you are always sure of getting a good position when you finish your education. Office open day and evening. Call, telephone or write for further information.

THE FALL TERM OF THE KEEFE BUSINESS COLLEGE

4th and Pearl Sts.,

FOUR CONCERTS PLANNED BY THE PHILHARMONIC

First Rehearsal of 1915-16
Season Will Be Held on Sunday, September 26

RAWSTRON AGAIN IS LEADER

Ralph Toland Soloist; Organization of the Society Remains the Same

The first of four concerts to be given during the coming winter season by the Philharmonic society will be during the first part of November at the La Crosse theatre. Plans are now under way for the first rehearsal, to be held Sunday, September 26, at the W. B. U. Assembly hall.

Professor F. W. Rawstron, whose efficient direction brought success to the organization last year, will again lead the musicians. Professor Rawstron is a graduate of the Royal Academy of Music of London, England. Mr. Ralph Toland will again be the soloist for the season. A. L. Goetzman and George W. Burton again comprise the finance committee.

Leigh Toland head of the society, is now arranging for a dance and reception at the W. B. U. hall about the middle of this month for the orchestra players. The date will be announced soon. This event will be the official opening of the season. Rehearsals will be held frequently from that time until the first public appearance.

The Philharmonic this season will comprise about fifty musicians, or possibly more. Mr. Toland desires to call attention to the fact that the society is open to anyone who is a musician, whether amateur or professional.

"Contrary to a popular opinion," said Mr. Toland, in commenting upon the plans for opening the season, "the Philharmonic society still lives. It is the longest-lived instrumental organization in La Crosse. The future of the orchestra looks brighter now than ever before."

All men and women in La Crosse and vicinity will be interested in the announcement on top of page 7 Monday's Tribune.

Miss Gertrude Ives has returned home after a few weeks' visit with friends at Waterloo and Guttenberg, Iowa.

Hurrah! They're Here!

The New Post Toasties—a delicious sweetmeat with all of the true corn flavour! A flake that won't mush down when cream is added—a flake that stays fresh and crisp.

NEW Post Toasties

are made of selected white corn by a new process that brings the fragrance of the sunny corn fields to your table.

Notice the little puffs on every flake, put there by the unique methods of cooking and toasting. It's the only method that gives you the full, rich corn flavour.

To test the taste, try a handful of Toasties direct from the package, without cream or milk. Here are flakes that don't depend upon cream and sugar for flavour.

They're Mighty Good!

VETERAN OF WAR WITH SPAIN DIES

Alfred O. McDonald, Spanish-American war veteran, passed away early this morning at his home, 1448 Rose street. He had been ill but a short time when the end came. He was born in Illinois January 22, 1874, but has made La Crosse his home for the greater part of his life. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon from the residence, 1448 Rose street, at 2:30. Burial will be made in Oak Grove cemetery.

Police Prisoner Refuses To Give Even False Name

He is red-headed. And he is Irish—he admits it with enthusiasm. But what his name is the police don't know, even though he is occupying a cell at central police station. He wouldn't even give an alias. They picked him up early this morning in the Burlington south side yards, near the Armour receiving station. He was slumbering peacefully with a tie for a pillow. There was as good a riot as one man can furnish when he was arrested, and it continued all the way to the police station. It didn't end until the nameless one was crowded into a cell, and then the noise didn't die away at once. "No, I'll not tell ye my name," he roared at the sergeant. "Nor I won't tell ye nothin'. What for d'ye want to arrest a peaceful man doin' nothin' but sleep?"

BOUQUETS INSTEAD OF TAGS WILL BE GIVEN TRAVELERS

(Continued from Page One.) ing and needs her attention is called on as frequently as necessary. Diets are planned, suggestions as to dressing and bathing and every other department of the baby's care are given to the mother. It is a big work, for La Crosse has a birth rate averaging 600 babies a year.

Nips Disease in Bud
"And the school nurse work is most important. We have an extremely low contagious disease average, and it has been steadily lower each year, due in large part to the efficiency of the school inspection Miss Peterson carries on. Every child who is absent is reported to Miss Peterson, and she follows up each case. If the youngster has a sore throat, a culture is taken, and many are the nascent diphtheria epidemics we have caught and nipped in the bud. "You see, if a child has a mild case of diphtheria, within three or four days he is physically able to return to school. But he is a menace to every child he meets. Our follow-up system removes this menace. When contagious diseases are found, the child and others who might spread the infection are isolated, and the disease is halted in its tracks."

Light for the Needy
"It is hard to realize the great good which the third branch, the literal visiting nurse work, does for this community. To hundreds of poor people who otherwise would suffer in squalor and ignorance, Miss Peterson brings light and cheer. She gives them care and comfort they could get in no other way—and she saves many lives in the course of the year."

ATTENTION COMRADES!
All members of Wilson Colwell Post No. 38, G. A. R., are requested to meet at Post hall, court house, at 1:30 p. m. Friday, Sept. 3, to attend the funeral of Comrade Chas. P. Sanborn.

"Gets-It" for Corns, SURE as Sunrise!

Any Corn, With "Gets-It" on It, is an Absolute "Goner!"

Yes, it's the simplest thing in the world to get rid of a corn—when you use "Gets-It," the world's greatest corn-killer. Really, it's almost a pleasure to have come out to see them come off with "Gets-It." It just loosens the corn from the true flesh, easily, and then makes it come "clean off." 48 hours ends corns for keeps. It makes the use of tape, corn-squeezing bandages, irritating salves, knives, scissors and razors really look ridiculous. Get rid of those corns quickly, surely, painlessly—just easily—with "Gets-It." For warts and bunions, too. It's the 20th century way.

"Gets-It" is sold by all druggists. 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

LADIES WANTED ON BOARD OF TRADE TOMAH EXCURSION

That tomorrow's trip to Tomah for La Crosse Day at that city's hustling fair may not lack interest en route, D. W. MacWillie and C. S. Van Auken, board of trade leaders who are conducting the arrangements for the excursion, today issued a blanket invitation to the feminine half of La Crosse.

"This is not to be a stag affair," they said. "Come on along."

Prospects for a record-breaking crowd became much brighter as soon as it became known about town that the ladies will be along. The first stop on the route to Tomah will be marked by the West Salem Military band joining the La Crosse aggregation. Bangor will send a baseball team and Sparta a large delegation of business men. The train will return to La Crosse at about 6:30 o'clock in the evening. The tickets which are being sold for the trip are not good on any other than the special leaving at 10 o'clock.

There January 27, 1865. She leaves her husband, with whom she had operated a truck farm on the north Salem road for many years. Funeral services will be held from the house at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rev. Julius Bergholz of the German Lutheran church of the north side will officiate and burial will be in the Onalaska cemetery.

STODDARD WOMAN CALLED BY DEATH

Mrs. Ruth Bay, wife of Gustave Bay, died at her home in Stoddard yesterday morning at 8:30, following an illness of a year with a complication of diseases.

She was born October 30 forty years ago in the town of Bergen, Wis. She is survived by her husband, Gustave Bay; her father, John Zink; one sister, Mrs. Minnie Hetherington, Bloomer, Wis., and five brothers, Charles of Stoddard, John and Joe of the state of Washington, Frank and Harrison of Idaho, and George of Roswell, New Mexico.

COMMISSION DOES NOT MEET

Owing to the absence of several of its members from the city, the meeting of the fire and police commission, scheduled for last night, was not held. Only routine business was before the board for consideration.

RETIRED PRIEST DIES IN THE CITY

Rev. Father Lynch Who Has Been Invalid for Sixteen Years, Passes Away Today

Rev. Father Michael Lynch, retired, and an invalid for the past sixteen years, passed away at his residence early this morning. The end came at 1:30 and was due to cancer of the intestines. He had been confined to his bed for the past three months.

He was born in County Derry, Ireland, about 64 years ago and came to this country as a young man. Prior to his emigration to this country, he studied medicine at the University of Dublin. At his later decision to enter the priesthood he came to the United States, where he enrolled at the Allegheny Theological college at Allegheny, Pa.

Immediately after completing his course in that institution he was ordained and assigned to the St. Paul diocese, remaining in that diocese until Winona was classified as a diocese distinct from St. Paul. At the time of the separation of the two ecclesiastical districts, Father Lynch held a charge in southern Minnesota, being connected, until his forced retirement, with the Winona diocese under Bishop Patrick Heffron. His last charge was at Rushford.

Sixteen years ago he was forced to resign his active labors because of rheumatism, an ailment with which he has been afflicted ever since. He removed to La Crosse, where he bought a residence on the corner of Thirteenth and Winnebago streets, where he has made his home since coming to the city.

It was his custom, when able, to say mass at the St. Francis hospital, and to assist Father Ambrose Murphy of St. James' church on the north side.

Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 9:30 from St. James church, in accordance with one of the last wishes of the late priest. Father Murphy will officiate and burial will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

INTEREST LARGE IN NEW PROGRAM

Much interest has been voiced in the second program of the Majestic's new "big time vaudeville" season, which opened at the first show this afternoon. Advance reports on the acts to appear had whetted the appetite of vaudeville fans, for the show promised to be one of the best the season will produce.

The show is a big comedy offering, every act with one, or possibly two, exceptions, being funny from curtain to curtain. The exceptions are Galettis Baboons and the Russian dancing act of Agnes Mahr and B. Michkofski. The former is unique, and had the honor of closing the season's opening program at the Majestic, Chicago's largest vaudeville house. The Russian dancers are both products of the czar's best known ballet schools, and their offering is absolutely new to La Crosse audiences.

The fun makers on the bill include the famous Pat Rooney and Marion Bent; Housely and Nicolas, musicians; Bessie Browning, the girl with individuality; and Cole, Russell and Davis, a trio of singing and talking comedians in a comedy sketch called "Waiters Wanted."

NEW PRIESTS FOR CATHEDRAL WILL ARRIVE TONIGHT

Rev. Father Peter Pape of Potosi, and Father Phillip J. Wagner, of Ossian, Iowa, who were appointed pastor and assistant, respectively, of St. Joseph's parish by Bishop Schwabach shortly after the funeral services were held over the body of the late pastor, Father Gerard Sluyter, will arrive in the city at 6 o'clock tonight. They will say their first mass in the cathedral tomorrow.

MAYOR'S DAUGHTER BETTER

Ida Mae Bentley, 12-year-old daughter of the mayor, today showed considerable improvement. Although still seriously ill her parents are much encouraged at her progress the last few days. Miss Bentley was operated upon recently for appendicitis at the La Crosse hospital.

FIND INDIAN MOUND

MADISON, Wis., Sept. 2.—Remains of an Indian mound, representative of a lynx or wildcat have been discovered at Middleton Beach on Lake Mendota. It has been surveyed by Charles E. Brown, secretary of the Wisconsin Archeological Society. "The mound was in a woodland at the edge of a marsh, and so had escaped attention. The length of the body from nose to tail tip is 143 feet, the length of each leg twenty-five feet and the width of the body about fifteen feet. It is three feet high at its highest point. The mound is constructed of black surface soil, a large number of loads of which must have been required in its building."

LONG CANOE RACE

KINGSTON, Ontario, Sept. 2.—Canadian canoeists were to start today on a 200-mile race over the St. Lawrence and Rideau river route.

The smaller a man's mind is the longer it takes him to make it up.

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The effect of Germany's action regarding her submarine warfare caused strength in the stock market again today. Gains of 1/2 to 1 point were made. United States Steel opened at from 76 to 76 1/4, a gain of 1/4 to 1/2; Baldwin Locomotive was up 1 at 83 1/2; Goodrich was up 1 at 63 and Union Pacific showed a gain of 1/2, selling at 129 1/2.

The spurt in the price of foreign exchange sent the market upward after a short slump due to realizing sales at 11 o'clock the market was strong and active. Crucible steel was active, selling up to 85 1/2, then eased off to 85.

The stock market relapsed into dullness in the early afternoon and some standard issues were heavy. Certain industrials continued their advances. The technical explanation was that the market was "tired."

The market closed weak.

Foreign Exchange

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Demand sterling was bid up to $4.60, an advance of 1/4 cents, shortly before noon today.

The market was fluctuating throughout the day. One explanation of the changes and uncertainty reflected in the constantly changing quotations was that a number of traders had been caught short yesterday and were being squeezed.

There were various rumors that influential bankers acting for British interests were ready to support the market in case of a violent break, and this late in the afternoon had a

CORBETT'S HOPE WINS

C. last night. Hemple was floored three times in the first round and was given a terrific beating all the way until his seconds tossed the sponge skyward. SAYS the man, who's learned Show good rich tobacco really is:

"Tie your bull on the outside and come on in where the good tobacco is. You've been wasting your opportunity with unnecessary grinding and spitting; rest your jaws and content your soul with a little nibble of the Real Tobacco Chew."

A little chew of pure, rich, mellow tobacco—seasoned and sweetened just enough—cuts out so much of the grinding and spitting.

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR W-B CUT CHEWING TOBACCO. IT IS THE NEW REAL TOBACCO CHEW—CUT LONG SHRED.

Take less than one-quarter the old size chew. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just take a nibble of it until you find the strength chew that suits you, then see how easily and evenly the real tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up. An excess of licorice and sweetening makes you spit too much.

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.

(Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste.)

WILLIAMS WORKS HARD TO REMAIN

Fred Inman Gives Champion Tight Rub; McLoughlin Favored to Win the Title

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 2.—R. Norris Williams II, national tennis champion, had the tussle of his life to hatter his way to the front in the national tennis tournament on Wednesday. Fred Inman, former New York state champion, forced the Philadelphia star to extend himself to his utmost. Williams won 7-5, 6-1 and 9-7.

Sentiment among tennis cracks at the national championships here today favored Maurice E. McLaughlin, the California star, to win back the title of national champion, which he lost of R. Norris Williams, II, of Philadelphia, at Newport last year. McLoughlin's form in his matches during the present tournament has been flashy and his stroke has been strong, and he is looked to defeat the veterans.

Today's matches were a feast for tennis fans. McLoughlin was expected to have a comparatively easy time with Leonard Beekman, New York interscholastic champion. Williams was on the card to meet Walter Merrill Hall, former middle states champion, and expected a stiff battle, also showed great form yesterday by eliminating Wallace F. Johnson of Philadelphia, a former Davis cup contestant.

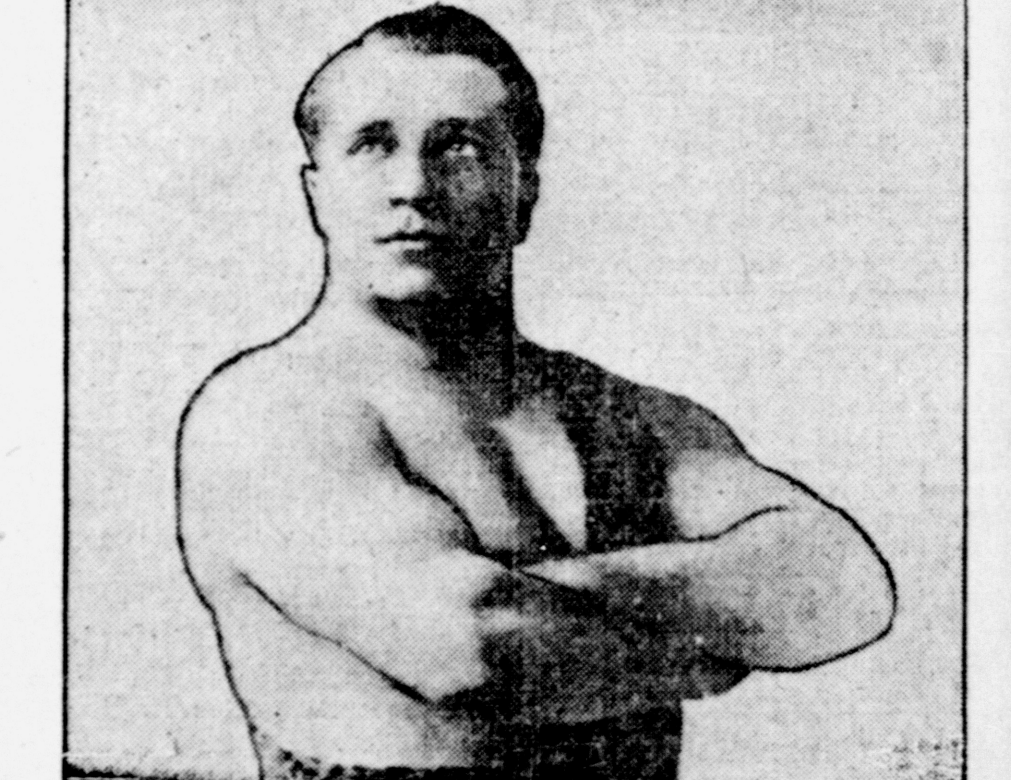

One of the California contingent will be out of the running tonight. Clarence J. Griffin and Ward Dawson come together today in a match which will be probably one of the hardest fought of the tournament.
